

Please count me as being against the regulation changes to be considered on June 2. I feel we already have too much concentration in the media and our democracy needs more diversity in ownership and control, not less.